

SHORT-COURSE TITLE: Writer's Club
Course Details:            Students will have access to specialist teachers of English to develop their creative writing skills. This term, The Writer's Club will focus on narrative while also working to establish and build an online Sheldon magazine that voices student views. Participation in this program will also include external writing competitions and opportunities to write for external publications and opportunities in photography for those interested.
Week/Date	Learning Experiences	Venue/Resources
1 THURSDAY	Introduction to Writer's Club Students share and discuss a sample of their writing with the teacher. Opportunities and subsequent roles for the term are established.	SLC Challenge Bar, bring an example of your writing.
2 THURSDAY	Narrative Writing Tips and hints for budding writers keen to enter competitions or get published online.	SLC Challenge Bar
3 THURSDAY	Figurative Language Read, discuss and admire examples of author's use of vivid imagery in novels. Emulate the writing style and technique of an author/poet.	SLC Challenge Bar
4 THURSDAY	Idea Collaboration for Writing Where do our ideas come from? How do we establish the best idea that will impact the reader? How can we plan for emotive impact?	SLC Challenge Bar
5 THURSDAY	Point of View Which is the best perspective from which to write the ideal narrative?	SLC Challenge Bar
6 THURSDAY	Individual work Students will work on extended writing of their choice or something dedicated for the school online publication.	SLC Challenge Bar
7 THURSDAY	Individual work Students are working on extended writing of their choice or something dedicated for the school online publication.	SLC Challenge Bar
8 THURSDAY	Individual work Students are working on extended writing of their choice or something dedicated for the school online publication.	SLC Challenge Bar
9 THURSDAY	Reflect and share Afternoon tea. Students reflect back on the achievements of the term to celebrate and share their writing.	SLC Challenge Bar